AcuCort signs Letter of Intent (LOI) with Lunatus for the Middle East and Gulf States

The pharmaceutical company AcuCort AB (publ) has signed a Letter of Intent (LOI) with Dubai-based Lunatus, regarding the distribution and marketing of its drug Zeqmelit® in the Middle East and Gulf States.

Lunatus is a well-established company with over 20 years of experience representing international healthcare companies in the region, including Abbott Diagnostics and Boston Scientific. The company has a proven track record of successfully introducing and developing profitable pharmaceutical and medical technology brands. Lunatus collaborates with more than 40 global companies and offers a portfolio of 300 product lines.

“This LOI is an important step in our international growth strategy. We see strong potential for Zeqmelit® in the region. Lunatus is a strategic partner, thanks to its strong presence and proven market expertise,” says Jonas Jönmark, CEO of AcuCort.

The parties now intend to finalise negotiations for a commercial agreement during 2025. The objective is to establish Zeqmelit® in several key markets across the region.
